

Erebuni Historical & Archaeological Culture-Preserve has regular exhibitions to make people acquainted with the museum's collection, to explain the latest results of archaeological researches realized in Erebuni, Karmir Blur and Shengavit, as well as other different topics. The hall, on the right wing of the museum, is used for temporarily exhibitions and covers an area of 72 sq. meters. It is also periodically used to organize scientific discussions and press conference.